

Is AP Business with Personal Finance Right for You?

A Quick Self-Check for Students

This isn't a test, and there are no wrong answers. Check off the statements that sound like you, then see what your count suggests.

Check What Sounds Like You

- ☐ I've thought about starting a business or a side hustle someday.
- ☐ I'm curious about how a company decides what to charge for something or how to get people to notice it.
- ☐ I want to understand money, budgeting, saving, and credit so I can make good decisions with my own money.
- ☐ I like the idea of stepping into a role, like advising a fictional household on its finances.
- ☐ I haven't taken a business class before, but I'm curious about one.
- ☐ I enjoy working on projects and scenarios, like building a business idea.
- ☐ Entrepreneurship, marketing, finance, or management all sound at least a little interesting, even if I'm not sure which one yet.
- ☐ I want a class that could help me no matter what career I end up in, not just a business career.

What Your Count Suggests

- 2-4 Checked a few (2-4): Still worth a conversation. Interest matters more than a perfect match.
- 0-1 Checked one or none (0-1): This one might not be where your curiosity is right now, and that's useful to know too. There's plenty of time to figure out what is.
