

AP Action Plan for the School Year

You've started a new school year, and we're here to help you stay on track with your AP courses. Follow this action plan for AP success.

Fall

- Use the unique join code your AP® teacher gives you to join your class section online
- Log in to your MyAP account to access AP Classroom and start using AP Daily videos to learn and review course content and skills
 - ◆ Ask your AP teacher how you'll be using AP Classroom during the school year
 - ◆ If your AP teacher has assigned them, start using the topic questions and progress checks to build your knowledge of course content and skills
 - ◆ Track your learning in the My Reports section of AP Classroom to check how you're progressing throughout the course
- Follow along with your AP teacher's lessons and assignments—it's the best way to stay connected to your course
 - ◆ Don't be afraid to ask questions along the way to keep learning and dive deeper into course content and skills
 - ◆ Form study groups with your friends/classmates
- Register for AP Exams for the AP courses you're taking this school year
 - ◆ Ask your AP teacher or coordinator about your school's registration deadline and any exam fees, as well as if you're eligible for a fee reduction
- If you're starting to think about college, check out the credit policies at the schools you're interested in—over 99% of colleges have an AP credit policy in place
 - ◆ A score of 3 or higher can get you college credit at more colleges than ever before

Winter

- Keep going with your AP course—you've got this!
- Refresh your knowledge and skills by watching AP Daily videos and completing any practice assignments your teacher has created in AP Classroom
- Explore additional AP courses you might want to take next school year
 - ◆ Check with your school counselor to find out which AP courses you can take
 - ◆ Talk to your school counselor about when you need to decide if you're going to take an AP course next school year
 - ◆ If you're working on college applications, select the school you want to receive your free AP score report—this is an important step to ensure you get the college credit you've earned

Spring

- AP Exams are administered every May—find yours on the schedule
 - ◆ Taking AP Exams shows admissions officers you're committed to tackling college-level work and motivated to succeed.
- Practice and prepare for your exams
 - ◆ Review course content and skills
 - ◆ Watch AP Daily videos
 - ◆ Practice answering AP Exam questions
- Use your free score send before the deadline to send your AP Exam scores to the college, university, or scholarship organization of your choice
