SCORE WEEK FOR COUNSELORS

Using PSAT/NMSQT Reporting Tools

Use these reports to move your students closer to college readiness.

Instructional Planning Report

This report allows you to:

- View aggregate and student-level performance related to the benchmarks:
  - Need to Strengthen Skills
  - Approaching Benchmark
  - Meets or Exceeds Benchmark
- Drill through to the Question Analysis Report to identify questions linked to the cross-test scores and subscores.

Use this report to:

1. Look for connections among questions and scores to identify areas of focus for intervention and curriculum review.
2. Remember to include opportunities for skill reinforcement in science and social studies courses. Teachers in these content areas can review lessons and activities to ensure that students have the opportunity to practice analysis skills in these courses.

Question Analysis Report

Tips to use this report:

- Read each question included in the report by clicking on the numbers in this column.
- Review the correct answer for each question and the number of students who selected the correct answer.
- Use difficulty indicators to determine the level of question with which students are struggling:
  - If students are struggling with all levels of questions, review curriculum to ensure students are exposed to the content in class.
  - If students are struggling with hard questions, collaborate with other teachers to determine how to increase the level of difficulty students practice in classroom activities and other assessments.

This report allows you to:

1. View aggregate question performance for your school as well as student-level question performance (like the former PSAT/NMSQT® Summary of Answers and Skills report) for all students in your school for each assessment, administration, and grade.

2. Compare your students’ aggregate performance on a given question to the performance of all students in the district, state, and nation.

3. View question content and answer explanations for disclosed forms.
